The Season For Breakthroughs

This is where the fun starts. Spring has sprung and the pains of winter blues are behind us. Through Easter we look forward expectantly - the church calendar also lifts us. Our pain has turned to glory. The risen Christ with the brilliance of indestructible life in his eyes has overcome and claimed the victory for us.

Many of us have had battles and indeed are still entrenched in battles, but with the memory of Easter etched on our soul we have the strength and the joy of the lord to sustain us. Easter has spoken tenderly of the pains we endure, and reassures us that it will not always be this way, a new age has begun; in our hearts, in our church and all around us.

I always find our faith is stronger when the sun is shining - where certainly in the season to see more of that, and increasingly we're reminded that Jesus has risen, and the kingdom of the Messiah is here, we may feel so frequently immersed in skirmishes but He has won the war. Easter declares, for all time, that the one who has conquered death has now made it the servant of our joy - sadness becomes untrue.

Jesus Christ, by his death, has destroyed the one who had the power of death, and as it says in Corinthians, 'Death is swallowed up in victory'. (1 Cor. 15:54). Journeying through Easter and into Spring, we've had our annual dress rehearsal for that great coming day when our perishable bodies will put on the imperishable and us mortals put on immortality. So let's keep this flame burning bright in our hearts - Christ has been raised. The day no longer fades to black, but the night awakens to his everlasting brightness. Darkness does not suffocate the sun, as his light chases away the shadows. Despite what the papers say, let's remember in this season of breakthrough that sin is not winning and will never win - death will always be swallowed up in his victory. If we are in Christ, we will always be on the winning side.

Today, 17/03/24, we celebrated the centenary of St Peter's recently renovated bells.

APCM!

Within a few days we will reach the day of the Annual Parochial Church Meeting. It will take place after the morning service on Sunday 14 April. To encourage as many members of St Peter's as possible to come and to make this a special occasion we will be holding a bring-and-share lunch immediately afterwards.

I do hope you will make a strenuous effort to be there. It really is an important date in the calendar – a time for considering where we are as a Christian community and thinking forward to where we will go and how we will set things up to help us to get there. Finance will be on the agenda inevitably; so too will fabric, and the vitally important issue of safeguarding. But this year it is especially significant because it will be the time for saying a big 'thank you' to Gill and Bill as they end their time as churchwardens.

They have been outstanding in this role – on this everyone is agreed – and the election of their successors brings obligations on us all to help things to move on with every possible hope of progress. In respect of Bill and Gill, theirs will be a very hard act to follow, and whoever is brave enough to try will need every encouragement and all possible assistance from day 1.

What can we do in preparation for 14 April? Well, there are the two new churchwardens to nominate. There will also be new members of the PCC to propose for election – at the time of writing it is not quite clear how many, but there will be some, so there is another issue on which to pause for thought. Nomination forms are on the table at the back of the church.

So, in short, it's important: please do come and play your part.

Tiverton Mothers' Union

Wednesday 24th April 2pm Baptist church rooms our talk will still be the MU talk for this year "TRANSFORMATION IN ACTION" but with a change of advertised speaker who will be Janet Jones, vice President of the Exeter Diocese and has spoken to us about A F I A . Janet writes "For with God nothing shall be impossible". The theme continues looking forward to our new triennium 2025, (MU has elections every 3 years). Looking at our churches and communities MU members are resilient and adaptable. Now is the time to build on these experiences to grow in the future.

We look forward to discussing these issues with Janet and welcome anyone who would like to join us and getting to know each other over tea & biscuits afterwards.

Rev Jane Wilson gave us a thought provoking talk in February on the "Two Davids" David Psalmist and King and St David Patron Saint of Wales.

We read about King David in Samuel chapters 1 & 2, how as a boy he played on his lute to sooth Saul who suffered from serious depression. David was the warier and the well known story of how he spared Goliaths life.

He was a gorilla fighter and also a ruthless soldier. In contrast he cried out to the lord in trouble was a man of prayer who wrote Psalms 23rd being the most well known.

St David was born in a storm on a cliff top in Pembrokeshire and grew up in a Christian home. He was a fine preacher and travelled around the South West and to France including Brittany, as an Evangelist he performed many miracles including restoration of sight to a blind man and he was remembered for raising a mound for him to stand on so that he could be seen and heard by the crowds who came to see him. St David was a vegetarian and was said to live on Leeks and although water was not safe to drink he did in preference to alcohol which was generally consumed at the time.

Considering what we can learn from both Davids and the main thing is to live a life of prayer which is an example to us all.

Discussion continued over tea & cake to end a good afternoon of fellowship and friendship.

The World Day of Prayer service at St Andrews church March 1st was attended by folk who represented

The service was prepared by an ecumenical group of Christian women from Palestine, as it was decided a year ago who would be preparing this service it was all the more meaningful and a special prayer was written for the present situation to include In this time of war we pray for the healing of hearts and the restoration of peace. We enjoyed further fellowship over tea and cake in the church hall.

‘I beg you, bear with one another’

This was the theme of the World Day of Prayer this year, and the service held at St Andrew’s Church early last month was very well attended by men, women and even little children (who were so quiet and enchanting!) Written by the Christian women of Palestine, long before the present tragic situation, we heard stories of three women who witnessed to the power of bearing together in love.

The symbol of an olive tree (kindly loaned by The Old Well) represented the three generations of these women – the trunk, branches and leaves – the eldest, the middle aged and the youngest. We learnt how each one experienced, and dealt with, the desperate situation they were in, representing so many living on the West Bank.

Accompanied by beautiful hymns and moving prayers we came away saddened but full of admiration for the deep faith that these Christian people have in the Lord.

Next year the theme is “I made you wonderful” and has been compiled by the women of the Cook Islands. And the venue for our service here in Tiverton is St. Peter’s – 7th March at 2.00pm. We hope to see you there!

Nickie Johnson

Random Thoughts

There was much grief throughout the land when the sycamore at Hadrian's wall was vandalized, for most of us have, if not a spiritual connection with trees, at least a respect for them; and in these days of concern for the planet, an appreciation of their importance to our survival.

But this particular sycamore had made a statement.

Recognized, perhaps, all over the world, it stood brave, perfect, steadfast and alone between barren hills.

As we watched televised shots of its shattered humiliation, perhaps we reflected sadly on our human impulse to destroy, and how much easier it is to destroy than to construct, both of which are manifestations of power.

Overnight, someone with loving care had planted a sapling replacement nearby, and this morning on BBC news we had a jubilant report of the successful germination of seedlings from the stricken parent; testaments of love and concern from those who wanted to bring comfort and reassurance.

I have a habit of opening a bible at random to find usually, that a verse written centuries ago speaks powerfully on present-day matters, and on this occasion it fell open at Job, chapter 14, verse 7:

“For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and the tender branch thereof will not cease.”

At this time of the resurrection of our Lord, our hopes, and the celebration of Nature's power, we can wait faithfully for the first buds of renewal from the amputation of the Sycamore of the North.

Appreciating Johann Sebastian Bach

Three hundred years ago, on 7th April 1724, the German composer Johann Sebastian Bach's St John Passion was performed for the first time, at a church in Leipzig.

It was put on as part of Good Friday Vespers at St Nicholas Church, having been transferred from St Thomas at the last moment by the music council. Bach, who had just turned 39, agreed to the move, while pointing out that the booklet had already been printed, there was no room immediately available for the musicians, and the harpsichord needed some repair. These problems were overcome.

Bach was already highly regarded, but primarily as a harpsichordist and organ expert. Later seen as one of the best composers of all time – renowned for such works as the Brandenburg Concertos and his Mass in B Minor– he was one of a large family of north German musicians. He is widely praised as a great synthesiser of styles and traditions.

The St John Passion, written during his first year as director of church music in Leipzig, was designed to be used as part of a church service. It follows John 18 and 19 in the Luther Bible, but the writer of the libretto is not known. A possible earlier Passion, written in Weimar, is lost.

Nowadays the St John Passion is heard mainly in the 1739–1749 version, which was never performed in Bach's lifetime, though he made many revisions to the original before his death.

Attendance on the rise.

Attendance at Church of England cathedrals has continued to bounce back following the pandemic, according to the latest statistics.

Figures show that adult usual Sunday attendance rose 60% between 2021 and 2022 for the 42 Church of England mainland Cathedrals to 12,300 adults. A total of 28,200 people including children attended services every week, according to Cathedral Statistics 2022.

Over the year there were 584,000 attendances at specially arranged services – not included in average weekly attendance – such as school services. The number of special services stood at 2,100. The total reported attendance at Christmas services stood at 104,000.

Getting the Harbour ready for spring

Rain! Rain! Rain! It seems like it has been raining now for months. And when it is not raining, the weatherperson on the television tells us it will be raining soon. At least the reservoirs are full, or nearly full. It was only a few years ago we were crying out for rain as we were being told that the reservoirs were fast emptying, and we might need a hose pipe ban – which parts of Devon did.

But the rain will ease off and sunnier weather is approaching. At Lighthouse we are already getting ready; the decking in the Harbour (our outdoor seating area) has already been power-washed in time for the new season. And by the time you read this, the tables, chairs and parasols should be out, just in time for Easter.

New menu coming soon

There are other changes coming as we revamp the menu. Penny and Kelsie have a few ideas of areas that can be changed. Some of the lesser-requested items might be dropped and new ones added. You may have noticed that during the winter we introduced Hot Chocolate Extra – the extra being cream and marshmallows – and very popular it is proving.

Unfortunately, we will also have to take this opportunity to put our prices up again. We are aware that the cost of living is still going up for our customers, but so are our costs, although we do our best to keep rises to a minimum. And, as usual, we will still try to keep our prices competitive, compared to other cafés in the town. We expect to introduce the new menu in the next couple of months.

Problems with the phone

We are sorry if you have had problems trying to phone us, but there has been a problem with the phone line into the shop. This means that the bell does not always ring and, when we do pick up, the line can be rather crackly. BT responded quite quickly when we reported it, but it took some time to trace where the fault might be. Their latest idea is that it is in a manhole in the middle of the road outside Lighthouse. This will mean a road closure in Bampton Street before they can even check – another delay while that is arranged. At present BT are hoping to restore 'normal' service by the end of March. We are waiting to see if that happens.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support for the work of Lighthouse.

Jam and Jerusalem

This is a very easy recipe for Chicken, and I'm sure you will enjoy it like we do. Yes it's not 'low calorie' but for a special meal it's allowed!!!

1oz Butter
 2tbsp Olive Oil
 6 Large Chicken Breasts
 2 cloves of garlic crushed
 2 shallots
 300 mls White Wine
 2 Tbs Dijon Mustard
 300 mls pouring double cream
 Salt and pepper
 Fresh chives chopped

Heat butter and oil in a deep frying pan, season each chicken breast *and brown over a high heat for 3-4 mins on each side. Remove and set aside.

Add the finely chopped shallots and fry for one minute, add the garlic, lower the heat to low and put a lid on the pan. Cook gently until the shallots are soft and lightly browned.

Pour in the wine and bring to the boil, stirring for 5-10 mins until reduced by 2/3rds.

Add the mustard and cream and boil again for 3-4 mins until sauce has thickened slightly. Season well.

**Return the chicken to the pan with any juices as well, cover with the lid. turn down the heat and simmer for 15 mins or until the chicken is cooked right through and tender. Serve with the sauce poured over and garnish with the chives.

* If the chicken breasts are large cut into two, lengthwise, and also adjust quantities accordingly if cooking for 2 or 4???

** At this point you can pour everything into an ovenproof dish if you prefer, and cook in a moderate oven until all cooked through.

So again, please send me any of your special or everyday recipes as I'm running out !!!
