From Christian (email)

Hello All

Thank you so much for all your work in holding things together. I'm so sorry for the extra work!

Hot off the press - An update on my condition just received:

Because the operation (ablation) has a high risk of clots and stroke I have to have been on blood thinners for 3 weeks. This means I have approx 2 more weeks in here being monitored/stabilised. My heart is beating continuously very irregularly atm.

Then I can get the operation and get out of here! ...psychologically it is very draining to be so inactive and helpless but I know I am in the right place and the safest place.

I don't know quite when I will be back and active and I had so many things that I was in the process of working on. There is a chance I will be rested, fit and well for 'Remembrance' but I can't tell atm.

Feel free to share the news as you feel appropriate but I hope to try and stay peaceful until I'm better.

You all and our churches are in my prayers!

I will keep you posted as I can.

With love
Christian

The Newte Library Reopening

The influence of the Newte family on our parish is profoundly visible, notably through several monuments in St Peter's church and the impressive organ commissioned by John Newte in 1696. John Newte's dedication to education and religion is evident in his numerous gifts, including a scholarship to Balliol College, Oxford for a Blundell's student and the establishment of a school for poor children in Cove. The library he founded is a surviving relic of his larger project to enhance the parish's religious and literate life.

At the end of last month, the library was officially reopened after the completion of the Seaton Gallery – a mezzanine floor to house the library above the office space with wonderful views across the Church. On display were notable items from the collection, including an illuminated book of hours, volumes relating to the Civil War and an early catalogue of the library. The West Gallery Quire from Crediton performed music from the period, including West Country tunes and a piece from the The Royal Psalmodist Compleat by William Tans'ur, housed in the library; and transporting the 100 plus visitors back to the 17th century.

The Newte library emerged during the turbulent 17th century, reflecting John Newte's support for the monarchy and high-church Anglican worship during times of political conflict. This library serves as a remarkable case study of local and national politics, and how individuals like Newte used print to bolster their causes. It can be interrogated both for its information on life in the local area during the 17th and 18th centuries, and to examine the national charitable and religious movement that was gaining momentum in the early 18th century.

Parish libraries like this one offer rare insights into the reading habits of early modern English clergy. Unfortunately, many such libraries have been lost or neglected. However, this library is one of only four in Devon founded before 1800 with most of its collection intact, and the only one still housed in its parochial church.

The preservation of the library is an ongoing effort. Recent funding from the Idlewild Trust and Church Buildings Council have enabled us to restore the 17th-century portraits which hang on the screen in front of the library. Conservation work on the books will begin in the Autumn and any funds towards this are gratefully received.

A huge thank you to everyone who has contributed to the reopening event, from those who volunteered on the day to the caterers and bellringers, and to those who helped behind the scenes. If you are interested in helping with future events, cataloguing or preservation of the library please email office@stpeterstiverton.org.uk or speak to myself directly. A number of individuals have asked if I would publish more on the library so over the coming months I hope to highlight an item in the collection in more detail.

Emma Cobbledick, Honorary Librarian

Blundell's Year 12 Field Day

On Monday 14th October we welcomed a group of year 12 youngsters from Blundell's school as part of their field day volunteering in the community. They were a lovely group, very polite and interesting to talk to. One or two of them were new to Blundell's sixth form this term and spoke of the warm community that had welcomed them at the school.

They got stuck in straight away to the tasks in hand:

Most of them had a go at learning to crochet to make a poppy for our upcoming Remembrance display. They were very enthusiastic and persevered.

Later they made 'heart strings' ready for Remembrance too.

Outside they cheerfully braved the chilly damp weather to plant bulbs around the churchyard and in the old font outside.

Something to look forward to in spring.

Back inside the church some of them helped to polish up the brass, including the lectern, reading stands and crosses. They were highly praised for their efforts...

...and the brass is gleaming!

Last, but by no means least they helped clean some of the books in our newly reopened Newte library. They also made some slip covers which are to help preserve the books as they sit on the shelves.

Staff helped too.

It is lovely for us to be able to include Blundell's pupils in our community projects.

St Peter's would like to say a big THANK YOU to Blundell's for including us in their community field day. We really appreciate all the hard work that was done by pupils and staff. We hope that the church was a welcoming place and that we can continue to develop our liaison with the school in the future.

Thankyou for your continued support

September 2024 Canon Tony Fensome visits the True Vine Education & Training Centre, Buyaga, Eastern Uganda, for the dedication of the first building in memory of Captain Richard Stenlake

Firstly I want to say a huge thankyou to all our supporters of this project. It is a great joy to me to see the school open and buzzing with activity. Through your continued generous support, the school is open and is continuing to develop the opportunities for young people in this area, which has been devastated by rural poverty, further complicated by the Covid epidemic and the aftermath of the HIV problem. True Vine is a really positive contribution to building up the next generation. The school teaches the National Curriculum for three days in the week and the other two days are centred on skills-based training, for example sewing, agriculture and basic building skills to enable these young people to find employment and also become more self-reliant. My visit, I hope will encourage the teachers and parents and local supporters of the school so that that they reap the benefits this endeavour brings to the whole community.

The ceremony to dedicate the first building in memory of Cpt Richard Stenlake from St Peters, Tiverton, in recognition of his generous support, was marked with singing and dancing, the unveiling of a plaque and the planting of trees.

With your continued support I believe that the school will go from strength to strength. Thankyou once again

St Peter's church was looking particularly beautiful, with the lovely flower arrangements all around, to celebrate our Harvest Festival. I would like to say 'Thank you' so much to the flower team for all their hard work and expertise. What would our festivals be without you all.

TIVERTON LIFEPATH 2024

Tiverton Lifepath 2024

LIFEPATH was originally a Scripture Union resource which is run by local churches all across the UK. It aims to give primary school pupils the opportunity to explore the 'life path' of an historic Christian who had connections with their own locality, and to use this as a springboard to reflect on their own 'life path'.

Lifepath Tiverton focuses on the Wesley family, of whom, Samuel Wesley (1690-1739) was the headmaster at Old Blundell's (1734-1739).

Tiverton Lifepath 2024

Year 4 children come from schools in the area to spend a day at St Paul's church. Together with accompanying school staff and a Wesley child (a volunteer adult), each group of about 10 children takes part in 4 activities, exploring the lives of various members of the Wesley family. Lunch is a 'bring-your-own' picnic, hopefully outside the church if it's dry!

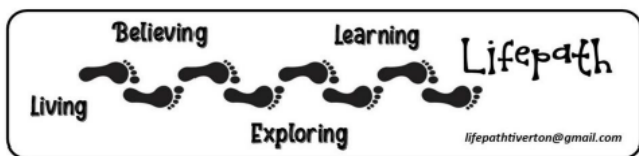

Following Scripture Union's Lifepath guidelines the day begins and ends with collective gathering, which includes some dramatisation of the Wesley family history. Everyone has some space during the day for reflection on their own 'inner journey'.

In June 2024, several volunteers from St Peter's joined the Tiverton Lifepath team and one of the Newte Library books was used at the event. The children were 'wowed' particularly by the antiquity of such a volume.

If you would like to see more, a video has been made and can be viewed either on the St Paul's website or on YouTube: <https://youtu.be/7izpSolpwgU?feature=shared>

One of the things about helping at Lifepath is the experience of being part of a team of Christians from many different churches in, and around Tiverton. If you would like to volunteer for Lifepath Tiverton 2025 please contact:

lifepathtiverton@gmail.com

Jam and Jerusalem

Here's another lovely recipe from Jo Hall-Tomkin, and very easy to make, so will soon become a favourite I'm sure.

Chocolate and Brandy Pots.

Serves 4-6

1 pint of single cream
1 large (200g) bar of good quality dark chocolate. ( Cadbury's Bourneville will do)
2 eggs
2 tablespoons brandy ( or tea sp. Brandy essence)

Break up the chocolate into small squares and put into small heatproof bowl.
Add all the single cream.

Heat gently together, stirring, either over a pan of simmering water or in the microwave, until it comes to a rolling boil. Stir well together until completely smooth.

Meanwhile, whisk together eggs and brandy, then pour into chocolate and cream mixture, whisking together until completely amalgamated.

Pour into ramekin or sundae dishes, and leave to set in a cool place.

Serve with single or whipped cream.

Thanks Jo for this, and with Christmas coming a very good recipe to go to. Any more of your favourites?, I would love to hear from you.

Mothers' UNION

Christian care for families

Wednesday November 27th
2pm Baptist church hall our meeting will be for all members participating in making Christmas Crafts. Last year we had such an afternoon having lots of fun making different crafts under the guidance of Nickie, Sheila & Sandra, so we will repeat this with Nickie & Sheila and hopefully another "crafty" person. 50p each given on the day will cover costs. All are welcome to join us and share refreshments and chat afterwards.

Octobers meeting we welcomed Janet Jones as our speaker from Buckfastleigh who organises AFIA, Away From It All holidays in the Exeter Diocese.

Janet started her talk by asking us how we benefit from hols and what favourite places we have been to.

With AFIA Janet told us "Help has evolved over time, in the past using donations from all over the diocese, we have paid for families to take a well needed holiday in a caravan near Exmouth, we have run various day trips and clubs to give parents some time together. The AFIA we know and love is still evolving and this is where we would love to see you involved too. Would like to offer you the opportunity to access some AFIA funding for your own project or event, we would like us to be able to work together delivering and complimenting each others needs. For example, this could be anything from requesting funds to support a child/ children to access your programme/ funding to enable better resources to benefit children or families/food parcels to accompany a project/event. All applications will be given due consideration". Forms can be acquired from Nickie.

This is a new project for MU's to consider to help those who need help.

Nickie thanked Janet very much and gave a donation of £75 from our group Afterwards we enjoyed delicious cake, courgette and chocolate, made by Nickie.

November 22nd there will be a Diocesan meeting for all members at Honiton, 10-3pm, we take a packed lunch, details from Nickie. These meetings are all very worthwhile hearing news from different MU's in the Diocese. Also meeting up with old friends and making new acquaintances.

November 25th to 10th December MU keeps the 16 days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence to raise awareness of the fact that 1 in 3 women worldwide have been subjected to either physical and /or sexual violence in their lifetime. Mothers Union's Global day of Action will take place on Saturday November 30th. On this day thousands of members on this day will hold special services and marches across the world and on this day to hold a one minutes silence at 1.03 to remember and pray for all those who suffer.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Thank you to everyone who supported us this year when we held the coffee morning at Lighthouse. Despite the terrible weather, we had a good turn-out and with a few donations given the next day, when the weather was better, we broke last year's amount and raised £230. What can we do next year?

Revised Menu

At last, the revised menu is ready and by the time you read this should already be in use. We're sorry for the delay, which was down to personal matters, but it did mean that you enjoyed the lower prices for a bit longer. Much as we hate having to put up our prices, our costs keep rising and so, if we are to stay afloat, we have to. However, we do try to keep them as low as possible.

New Coffee Machine

Recently our coffee machine has become temperamental and started to play up. The other week it decided not to make hot chocolate or mocha and so we had to call in the engineer to give it a good talking to. Looking back into the records I can see that it is nearly 10 years old and so the trustees have decided to replace it with a much newer model. Another expense, but fortunately we have a God who provides for all our needs (if not always our wants!). So, we are trusting that it won't make too big a dent in our reserves.

Christmas

Just a reminder that all the Christmas stock is now out in the shop. Along with all the old faithfuls, this year we have some calendars by Ben and Hannah Dunnett which are on Special Offer. The RRP is £12.99 but we have them on sale for £10.99. If you've seen their cards and other items, you'll realise that these are something special. So grab yourself one before they are all sold out.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support for the work of Lighthouse.
